Linen & Sheetting SALE!

Housekeepers, this is a notable, an unusual, opportunity to secure good goods at prices that will not last longer than the week! These reductions apply particularly to our better grades of Bleached Table Damasks.

Not a piece of these up to the finest grade that sells at $2.50 per yard but what has been materially lowered in price.

A FEW SPECIALS:

Ten pieces 48 inch Unbleached Damask Table Linens at 43c a yard. You have paid 65c for qualities not better.
Ten pieces 50 inch Unbleached Damask Table Linens at 31c a yard. 40 and 45c are the regular prices.
One case Stephen's Unbleached Pure Linen Crash at 56c a yard. Not a slightly crash, but works equal to the best.
One case Twilled Windsor Crash at 31c a yard.

SHEETS.

The demand for low and medium priced ready-made Bleached Sheets having exhausted our supply of these, we make two lots of our finest and largest sheets, made out of such high class sheetings as Ulica, New York Mills, Fruit of the Loom, etc., and offer these at about cost of manufacture, viz:
Lot No. 1, choice at.....59c each.
Lot No. 2, choice at.....64c each.

Our Ready-made Pillow Cases are going the same way:
Lot No. 1, at.....22c a pair.
Lot No. 2, at.....32c a pair.

Ready-made Linen Sheets and Sheetings also reduced.
Buy your Muslin now, as prices have advanced about 25 per cent, and will be higher in spring.

JANUARY 30

We begin invoicing. We'll take $5.90 per pattern for any of our Fine Novelty Dresses rather than carry them over. Some have sold for four times this price.

CLOAKS.

Compare our Cloaks at Half Price with others and you'll agree with us that they are the choicest and cheapest of all. Many of the styles will be the correct thing for spring wear.

ANDREW SNYDER'S DEATH.

Interesting Story of an Eye-Witness, who Narrowly Escaped.

Mr. Fred Biedenbach tells an interesting story of the death of Andrew Snyder on Market street late night before last by electricity. Mr. Biedenbach was near the fatal spot with a dog which he prizes highly. The dog walked upon the iron grating over the gutter, received the current with which the iron was charged, and began to writhe in agony. Biedenbach went to his pet's assistance, and received the shock himself.

Just as he felt it, he saw the wire, and realized what was the matter. He had presence of mind enough to fall backward instead of forward, thus escaping the wire and saving his life.

It was but a moment later that Snyder came along. He was warned, but apparently did not appreciate the danger till he felt the shock. Then he reeled and tottered, crying out, "For God's sake, pull me off of here!"

The shock weakened him so that, even as he cried for aid, he fell, and instead of throwing himself backward, he fell forward on the wire. He made a sort of a groaning sound, and was doubtless dead instantly.

Yesterday renewed denunciation was heard everywhere of the carelessness in regard to the incandescent electric light wires. The insulation is in many places worn off, and a wire is likely at any time to come in contact with a telephone wire, and cause trouble. The city authorities are guilty of great negligence to allow this to continue without interference.

THE DOUBLE DROWNING.

The Sad Fate of Young Smith and George Duff Tuesday Night.

The drowning of young Sidney Smith and George Duff night before last in the Back river below the upper point of the Island was one of the saddest similar casualties ever reported here. Sidney's brother, a younger boy, broke through the ice, and it was in trying to save his life that Sidney lost his own. An older brother saved the youngest, but Sidney was past help. He is spoken of by all who knew him as a noble little fellow, and his heroic effort to save his brother's life was but a characteristic act. He is widely mourned, and his parents have the sympathy of everybody in their bereavement.

The drowning of young Duff is still a mystery. It was not known that he was drowned until in fishing for the Smith boy's body Duff's was found. His death was also a sad one.

The funeral of Sidney Smith will take place to-day at noon from the residence of his father, Robert Smith, at Benningville. The interment will be at Linwood cemetery and a Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling train leaves sharp at 1 o'clock.

In the Circuit Court.

In the case of W. L. Reese, an infant, vs. The Wheeling & Elm Grove Railroad Company, went to trial in Part I Circuit Court yesterday before Judge Campbell. The jury was made up of Frank Booth, John L. Henry, Fred Gruser, Andrew Slater, Alex. Bolton, W. C. Haines, E. A. Sherratt, W. A. Lashley, William Haine, John E. Smith, A. J. McClulloch. It is a suit for damages, $15,000.

John H. Kemple, et al, a decree was entered distributing the proceeds.

M. Robinson vs. J. Sonneborn, judgment set aside, and a new trial granted. Eugene Falk and Eugene Martinelli, natives of Italy, were naturalized yesterday.

THE ELECTION TO-DAY.

The Battle of the Ballots will Open at 7 and Close at 6.

WHO'LL BE ELECTED THE QUESTION.

The Republicans Confident of Victory, and Proud of their Candidates if they Lose—The Council Ticket, at Least, is Safe—The Candidates are out Hustling, and Glad the End is at Hand.

The battle of the ballots, with the City Council and offices as the prize, will be settled to-day. The polls open for the city election at 7 o'clock this morning and close at 6 o'clock this evening. The precinct lines have already been printed in the INTELLIGENCER. Judging from the time consumed in counting the vote at the state and county election, the result ought to be known this evening in nearly all the wards not later than nine o'clock.

The result has been the subject of a great deal of anxiety among the populace, and more especially those who bet. For a time the betting was all in favor of the Democratic ticket, and odds more freely given, but for some reason the people who had money that talked that way seemed to have been silenced. In technical parlance they were "bet to a standstill." For the past two days money on the Republican candidates has gone begging.

The Republicans who are best posted seem most hopeful of victory. In many quarters Bennett's election as chief of police is conceded, and it is evident to everybody who has watched the campaign that Caldwell is going to give Seabright the best hustle for the mayoralty he ever had yet.

The desperate straits in which the Democrats find themselves is well illustrated by a circular issued yesterday by the German American Cleveland Club. It appeals to German voters to support the straight Democratic ticket, because the Democrats have shown themselves "more liberal" in administering the laws than the Republicans, and because Republican victory now means the triumph of Republican principles in the future state and national elections in this locality. This was sent to all the members of the Cleveland club, as well as to other German-Americans, Democrats and Republicans alike. Its wording shows that the author thinks the situation demands a special effort.

If the Republicans are defeated they have left the proud consciousness that they did not deserve it. They present a ticket which on its merits is far superior to the Democratic ticket.

It is almost the universal opinion that the Republicans will elect a majority of the Council, at least, and that is something. The incompetence of the Democratic Council, the inefficiency of its appointees, the bad bungle its assessors made of the revaluation, all contribute to the general disgust of the public with the Democratic management of city affairs, and if that party's administration is not turned down and rebuked, it will be, as a well known Democrat put it yesterday, "because the people are a set of chumps."

Weber & Fields' Company To-night.

At the Grand this evening the celebrated Weber & Fields company, said to be one of the greatest specialty shows in America, will commence a three nights' engagement and give a matinee Saturday. Weber & Fields, one of the best German dialect teams in the profession, head the list, and are ably assisted by eighteen of the finest specialty artists in the profession. Weber & Fields are great favorites here, and no doubt they will open to the largest audience of the season. The seats are going off lively at Genthers.
